MURAL

Biography

Charlie Edmiston is an American visual artist based in Los Angeles, California. His early career in graffiti served as the foundation for his current practice, which includes large-scale murals, painting, sculpture and design.

Edmiston's work explores the boundaries of color, form and material in a manner evocative of mid-century modernists. His unconventional palette choice, along with the unique composition of shapes, command attention in any environment.

Edmiston's distinctive style has gained international recognition, with mural installations and exhibitions in Asia, Europe and North America.

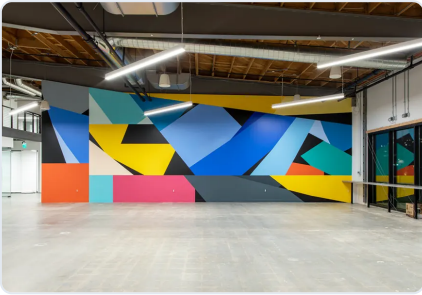

Born in 1987 in Santa Monica, California.

Lives and works in Los Angeles, California.
