Biography

Graham Carraway was born and raised in Mississippi, pursuing his art career in Denver, Colorado. His focuses have developed over the years to involve all things lettering related, letterpress printing, woodworking, mural painting, and custom commissioned sculpture work.

After an exhausted stint in the financial world, Graham decided to pursue his dreams in culinary arts. While working in kitchens, art became more prevalent each passing year until it was prioritized as his career in 2018. Since then Graham has worked on countless lettering and design projects, taught workshops and classes, been a freelance artist for PR firms all over the US, painted murals, and attempted to create just about anything that comes his way.

Graham and his wife, Olivia, traveled the United States for her travel nursing job, living in New Orleans, Sacramento, Phoenix, Tacoma, Vancouver, Colorado Springs, Winston-Salem and New Haven. Living in a variety of places has awarded him new opportunities and provided inspiration that continues to fuel his artistic career in Colorado.
