Biography

Shaunt'e Lewis is a published Visual Artist and Illustrator. She was born and raised in Springfield Massachusetts and moved to Indiana in 2011. Her work centers around self identity, black culture and femininity. She specializes in colorful, bold illustration as well as murals and original paintings for private collectors and commercial clients. Her passion for art and entrepreneurship and her unmistakable style has led her to work with some amazing companies such as West Elm, Makers Mark, NCAA, Indy 500, Vuse, Nordstrom, Meijer, Jiffy Lube, PBS, Benjamin Harrison Presidential Site, SGR and more. Her work has also been featured in The New York Times, Complex Magazine, Hello Colorado and several local publications. Most recently, Lewis was awarded the Nickel Plate Arts "2022 Artist of the Year" Award.
