Biography

Sitki is a talented and accomplished artist, hailing from Istanbul, Turkey. He holds a degree in Industrial Design from Yeditepe University, which provided him with a solid foundation in art and design principles. However, Sitki's passion for street art led him to pursue his creative calling.

After completing his master's degree and working as an academic assistant for two years, Sitki decided to fully dedicate himself to his passion for street art. He has been actively participating in various festivals and competitions since 2016, earning awards and recognition as a promising artist. Sitki's distinctive style and unique approach to street art have made him one of the most exciting artists to emerge from Turkey's street art scene.

Sitki's talents have not gone unnoticed on the international stage. He has been invited to showcase his work at major festivals in Europe and America, including receiving 2nd prize at an international competition in Germany and being invited as a promising artist to a festival in America. Sitki's participation in these events has allowed him to connect with other artists and enthusiasts, further fueling his passion for his craft.

One of the hallmarks of Sitki's work is his incorporation of 3D chalk art into his street art pieces. He was one of the first street artists in Turkey to experiment with this technique, which has become increasingly popular in recent years. Sitki's ability to seamlessly blend this technique with his unique style has helped him stand out in a crowded field.

Sitki has had the opportunity to exhibit his work alongside world-renowned street artists, cementing his place among the most talented and promising artists in the field. He has also expanded his artistic horizons beyond street art, exploring digital art design as well. Sitki is currently continuing his career in both festival and digital art design in the USA, where he is constantly exploring new ideas and techniques to push the boundaries of his art.

In summary, Sitki is a talented and accomplished artist who has made a significant impact on the street art scene in Turkey and beyond. His passion, dedication, and talent have earned him recognition and awards, and he is widely regarded as a promising artist with a bright future ahead of him.
