Biography

The Art of Chase is known for his psychedelic murals that create a joyous disruption in our day-to-day-lives. After moving to Los Angeles from Belgium in the 90s to skateboard and seeing a raw city open to creation, he began his foray into the street art world on a large scale, offering a new mode of communication through imagery and uplifting text. His determination, fueled by his mantra “where there’s a wall, there’s a way,” has given rise to international opportunities and over 450 murals painted worldwide. The graphic and positive aesthetic of his work add to the urban landscape but also seek to create a dialogue between city inhabitants and within ourselves.

Chase has worked with CBS, UBER, PACSUN, WholeFoods, Bella+Canvas, Microsoft, Pepsi, Vans, Google, Spotify, Ray-Ban, Snapchat, Katy Perry, KIK, Twitter, Evite, CB2, TOMS Shoes, Flip Skateboards, Dickies, Altamont, Evite, Corona, Vitamin Water, Western Union, GUESS, Variety, Red Bull, Rolling Rock, Comedy Central, Aquafina, General Mills, Ministry of Sound, Budweiser, Puma, Levi’s, Scion, Acura, Elwood, KR3W, Andaz Hotels, Bloomingdale’s and Palmer Snowboards, amongst others. His work has been commissioned by the cities of West Hollywood (CA), Long Beach (CA), Lancaster (CA), Greensboro (NC), Ostend (Belgium), Brussels (Belgium) and Bristol (England).

Chase has supported the following local and international Charities and Foundations: Venice Family Clinic, T.J.
